Governing Rays

A starting place for Integration-Fusion

Physical Body	Emotional (Astral) Body	Mental Body
The Third and Seventh Rays predominate	The Second and Sixth rays predominate	The First , Fourth , and Fifth rays predominate
Any of the Rays can govern the Personality and Soul. Again, it is helpful to remember that the purpose of the Personality and Soul Rays in any lifetime is influenced by the Soul to best assist the personality in organizing and controlling its vehicle (the physical, astral, and mental bodies) and, then, later to equip the Soul to repeat the same activity as it relates to fusing with the personality. You will discover the method needed for your burgeoning personality to take hold of its constituent parts and intuit the method by which the Soul eventually controls and directs your personality and activities in the world

Ray 3 Personality: Active Intelligence

STAGE PRECEDING SELF-CONSCIOUSNESS

The goal for all development is to further group recognition through embodying the qualities of our spiritual prototype (whatever this may be for us at any given stage: personality, soul, or monadic ray). Therefore, when we are capable of recognizing this innate quality – differentiated as it is by our field of interest and service and stage of evolutionary consciousness – we become equipped to use the quality of our group to serve the Plan, strengthening its purpose and direction. Consequently, we become immeasurably more effective and useful to humanity and as channels through which light and life can pour into the world, producing human units, which are expressions of wisdom, intelligent activity, and love (attractiveness). [Excerpted from the unpublished book: One Humanity by T. L. Rucker]

Virtues	Vices
Adaptable, wide views on abstract questions, sincerity of purpose, clear intellect, capacity for concentrated philosophical reflection, strategic, ability to economize for the sake of efficiency	Busyness, intellectual pride, coldness, isolation, inaccuracy in details, manipulative, too critical of others, selfishness

Ray Three Personality Integration, coordinating the mental, astral, and physical aspects.	The organizing approach for a Ray 3 personality to bring its three aspects under control is a perpetual weaving and re-weaving likened to a spider weaving its web to capture its prey. The third ray personality is adaptive, tenacious, and adept at quickly identifying, according to the pattern it visions, what to keep and what to relinquish. They maneuver people, circumstances, and even themselves to achieve their goal. They assemble themselves, making them an individuality capable of outsmarting, outwitting, and outmaneuvering anyone. As powerful quick thinking and adaptive strategic centers within the group life, they must learn the limitations of their plans, schemes, and ideas so as to include those of other group members.

Ray 3 “Peak Personality” Stage

STAGE OF EXPRESSING AS A SELF-CONSCIOUS PERSONALITY

The soul must eventually displace the personality as the director and organizer of life because it is our true identity and is group conscious, making it capable of initiating activities through each enlightened personality for their own benefit and for the benefit of the whole. Long periods pass between personality integration and personality-soul fusion, leading eventually to a stage that we term Peak Personality.

This stage signifies a temporary unity before the destroying aspect of the soul ray’s influence is more forcibly felt by the personality, culminating in a new crisis in which the personality will give itself over to use by the soul. At this stage, the individual is an integrated personality, driven by personality ambitions, aims, and expressing themselves dominantly in one or another field of human endeavor. Their focus is upon the mental plane, replacing the previous dominance of the solar plexus. Thinking overrides feeling temporarily.

Third Ray “Peak Personality” Dynamics.

Third ray personalities are centers of active intelligence. At their peak, the third ray personality draws up plans and makes them a reality. They are business leaders and entrepreneurs relying on their wits and smarts to make things happen. An unawakened third ray personality chooses associates they perceive as most capable of carrying out their ideas and plans rather than what contributions others may have of their own ideas. As centers within group life, they must make space for others to contribute the best that is within them. They must stop thinking of themselves as the smartest person in the room so that they can begin to value the many ways and means to achieve the group goal. When they adopt the group goal as their own, they can effectively, efficiently, and intelligently organize to help the group achieve its goals.

Astrological Influences

STAGE OF BECOMING AND EXPRESSING AS A SELF-CONSCIOUS PERSONALITY

We grow from crisis to crisis at each stage, achieving an enhanced sense of our own strengths, capabilities, and power. Correctly handling each point of crisis and learning to self-initiate them is how we can consciously evolve. Precipitating crises that are another way of saying that we sacrifice the lesser to the greater. To live the life of the soul, we eventually sacrifice our personality. Most human beings are still mostly polarized and, therefore, approach life primarily through their feeling or sensitive, astral nature. Becoming an integrated personality shifts this polarization from the feeling aspect more definitely onto the mental plane. For most, this is by far the most painful and lengthy sacrifice. Then, too, at a much later time, we relinquish even life as a soul because we recognize the greater Father or Monad aspect.

At each crisis, the consciously evolving individual asks: What type of choice/decision/direction is required to adequately resolve the crisis/tension at this stage of development? Understanding the influences of the Sun and Rising Signs can help you answer this question.

The Sun sign and its ruler provides the field of expression and experience that provide a needed conditioning to help us become who we really are. The Rising Sign and its ruler is the subtle but persistent directing agent in any lifetime of the higher Self or soul helping to guide and constrain the developing personality so that it maintains a course that will eventually lead to its fitness to serve the soul's aims in cooperation with the ashramic group to which it belongs.

Jupiter (2nd Ray)

The unique energies associated with a person's Sun sign and its EXOteric ruler can help them to integrate their personality. This integration is crucial in perfecting the vehicle that will eventually be the channel for soul expression in the world. For most people, becoming a personality involves shifting their focus from their sensitive (astral or emotional) nature to their mind.

The Aquarius is known for being rational and detached (aided by the 5th Ray), making it particularly skilled at shifting its focus onto the mental plane. Uranus also gives the Aquarius a sense of standing apart from others, helping it separate itself to become a true individuality. The 7th Ray influence felt through Uranus ensures that the Aquarius can bring its thoughts into practical expression, as it desires to order life according to its vision. However, the Aquarius may face challenges recognizing that its love for the group can only be helpful if it becomes its true self and learns to discriminate. For instance, an Aquarius who is part of a team may need to assert their unique ideas and perspectives to contribute effectively, rather than simply conforming to the group's consensus. It must find a group whose idea of service matches its own. At the opposite extreme, rebelliousness may prevent some Aquarians from recognizing and being willing to sacrifice their ideas to blend with groups who could

The nature of a Rising sign and its EXOteric ruler sharpen the soul's impetus to adequately prepare and direct the personality's activities on the physical plane to become its useful agent. These energies may go unnoticed in our everyday lives due to the busyness of modern-day living. However, if we become aware of them, they can give us greater clarity and purposefulness. Likewise, these energies may assist the personality through constructive restraint, sensed as a persistent nudge to look more deeply at our life and experiences to uncover a deeper meaning. Ultimately, this inner pressure helps ensure success for the human personality in mastering its lower aspects—physical, emotional, and mental.

Sagittarius is often depicted as the half horse, half man, or a man riding a horse, aiming and preparing to shoot an arrow from his bow. It is the sign of ambition and goal-seeking, meaning that as the Rising sign accelerates the preparation of the personality for use by the soul, the individual will aim and shoot many arrows pointing to its goals, whatever these may be, and move towards them with determined and unrelenting focus. When the native whose Rising Sign is Sagittarius glimpses the expansive goal, placing it on a path agreeable to the higher Self or soul, whether or not they are conscious of doing so, Jupiter ensures successful expansion and overcomes all that may hinder our evolution. Sagittarius Rising is an excellent sign for venturing into the unknown, providing you with the fearlessness, love of adventure, and direction to leave behind the old and embrace the new. Of course, depending on the physical appetites and emotional ties, the rider may find it challenging to control the animal instincts. The rays influencing this sign – the 4th Ray of Harmony, 5th Ray of Concrete Knowledge, and 6th Ray of Idealism – mean that the Sagittarian who has a clear and enticing enough vision will wrestle their animal or lower nature into alignment so that it can achieve it.
